Chapter 79: Umbrios Revives and Materializes Fallen Enemies

Following the reinforcements provided by the former enemies-turned-allies, Umbrios takes his shadow power to a new level. Using his vast influence and command over the shadows, he revives and materializes the deceased soldiers of the fallen enemies, turning them into living, fertile beings. These newly materialized shadow soldiers now pledge their loyalty to Umbrios, joining the ranks of the Shadow Legion.

1. Revived Enemies-Turned-Allies

These are the former enemies of Umbrios who had previously been resurrected and pledged allegiance. The addition of newly revived and materialized troops significantly strengthens the Shadow Legion.

Abyssal Warriors (Revived and Materialized):

Initial Total: 3.5 quintillion

Losses: 500 quadrillion

Remaining: 3 quintillion

These warriors, once defeated in previous conflicts, are now revived and materialized as powerful shadow soldiers under Umbrios' banner.

Duskborn Shadows (Revived and Materialized):

Initial Total: 1 quadrillion

Losses: 100 trillion

Remaining: 900 trillion

Once enemies, these stealthy and deadly beings are now raised from the dead and given new strength by Umbrios, forming part of the newly materialized army.

2. Total of New Materialized Shadow Soldiers (Former Deceased Enemies)

Umbrios uses his shadow power and the materialization ring provided by Sung Jin-Woo to transform fallen enemies into living beings once more. These soldiers are imbued with shadow energy and made fertile, ready to serve in battle.

Materialized Fallen Soldiers (From Former Enemies):

Total Materialized: 3 quintillion (Abyssal Warriors) + 900 trillion (Duskborn Shadows) = 3.900 quintillion

---

Total of Enemies-Turned-Allies + Materialized Shadow Soldiers of Umbrios:

Revived and Materialized Abyssal Warriors: 3 quintillion

Revived and Materialized Duskborn Shadows: 900 trillion

Original Allies of Umbrios: 3.5 quintillion (Abyssal Warriors) + 1 quadrillion (Duskborn Shadows) = 4.5 quintillion

---

Final Total:

3 quintillion (Abyssal Warriors) + 900 trillion (Duskborn Shadows) + 4.5 quintillion (Original Allies) = 7.5 quintillion + 900 trillion

With the revival and materialization of these former enemies-turned-allies and fallen soldiers, Umbrios' forces have grown exponentially. The Shadow Legion is now an overwhelming presence, poised to reshape the balance of power in the multiverse with its immense strength and loyalty.
